CISPATÁ BAY NATURAL RESERVE

Welcome to a place where you can truly disconnect and immerse yourself in a myriad of captivating landscapes. Explore the enchanting beauty of mangroves, meandering rivers, picturesque islands, vibrant coral reefs, and pristine beaches. This destination is a gateway to a world of azure hues, soaring spirits, mesmerizing sunsets, and an ambiance that guarantees happiness, whether you visit alone, with friends, or as a couple.

Nestled in the municipality of San Antero, Córdoba, to the south of Morrosquillo Gulf, lies the remarkable Cispat Bay—an expansive sanctuary for flora and fauna. Spanning 8,000 hectares, this haven boasts lush mangrove swamps and a shimmering water mirror. It beckons visitors with opportunities for contemplation, conservation efforts, birdwatching, and the sustainable utilization of its precious ecosystem.

Within this region, a diverse array of over 260 bird species grace the skies, while reptiles like iguanas, lizards, turtles, and the protected needle caiman roam the land. Thanks to dedicated conservation programs, the needle caiman has been shielded from the brink of extinction, a testament to our commitment to preserving this remarkable species.

Come, allow yourself to be immersed in the natural wonders of Cispat Bay, where serenity, conservation, and awe-inspiring encounters await you at every turn.

THE SAN BERNARDO ARCHIPELAGO

NATIONAL PARK

Discover the captivating San Bernardo Archipelago, an exquisite cluster of ten islands: Boquerón, Palma, Panda, Múcura, Tintipan, Maravilla, Cabruna, Mangle, Caycen, and the Islet of Santa Cruz. Nestled in the Gulf of Morrosquillo, caressed by the azure Caribbean Sea, these islands span an impressive 120,000 hectares. Within their embrace, a vibrant underwater world thrives, boasting a magnificent array of 62 coral species and 513 species of fish.

San Bernardo proudly claims the title of the largest and most diverse coral reef formation along the Colombian Caribbean's continental coast, spanning an expansive 1,200 square kilometers (120,000 hectares). As you arrive at this tropical paradise, prepare to be enchanted by the translucent blue waters that harmoniously blend with the sky, the glistening white sands of its beaches, and the lush greenery of swaying palm trees.

Allow yourself to be immersed in the breathtaking beauty of the San Bernardo Archipelago, where nature's vibrant palette paints a picture of serenity and wonder.

POLICIES AND CONDITIONS

Liability clause

Air Wave Tours. LLC is subject to the liability regime established by Law 300 of 1996. Decree 2438 of 2010 and other regulatory decrees. In its capacity as Intermediary, it has limited responsibility in the provision of the tourist services of the suppliers.

Likewise, it has no interference in their decisions or policies. The agency does not assume any responsibility towards the user for the air transport service, except in the case of a chartered flight and in accordance with the conditions of the transport contract. The agency does not assume responsibility towards the user or traveler for events such as accidents, strikes, riots, earthquakes, climatic or natural phenomena, security conditions, political factors, denial of entry permits, health issues and any other case of force majeure, that may occur during the trip. All additional information regarding validity, conditions, exit taxes from Colombia and abroad, rates, charges and other mandatory payments, preventive health measures of the destination and services at the time of making the reservation. Likewise, the client will be informed in the travel documents, according to the characteristics that apply to each one. All prices and rates presented in this bulletin, receipt, voucher or quote are subject to change, availability and validity without prior notice. Restrictions and conditions apply for each rate published according to its validity. The hotel tariff depends on the chosen accommodation. The cancellation policies, penalties, restrictions and particular conditions of the package will be informed to the passenger at the time of issuance of the travel documents. In case of force majeure or fortuitous event before or during the trip (accidents, strikes, riots, earthquakes, climatic factors, riots, security conditions, political factors, denial of entry permits, health issues, among others), or simply in order to guarantee the success of the plan, the operator and/or the agency may modify, replace or cancel itineraries, dates, flights, hotels, optional services, which is accepted by the client at the time of purchasing the services. The refund policies for services not provided due to force majeure situations will be defined by each operator and they will be confirmed once the travel documents are reserved and issued.

Air Wave Tours. LLC is not jointly and severally liable for the amounts requested in reimbursement. Any refunds that may apply will be made within 30 calendar days of the request. However, in the event that the process takes longer for reasons beyond Air Wave Tours. LLC, it will not recognize any interest on the amounts to be reimbursed. The reimbursement percentage will depend on the provider's conditions and the agency's administration expenses. Likewise, the specific conditions of each plan will define the form of payment of the plan and the reimbursement parameters that may apply.

If a visa is required, Air Wave Tours, LLC will provide advice on the case, being the exclusive autonomy of the consular authority everything related to the procedure, the requested documents, the study, costs, duration of the procedure and the approval or rejection. If the visa is denied, there will be no refund of the sums paid by the applicant. In any case, it will be the sole responsibility of the client, the processing and compliance with the informed requirements.

It will be the prerogative of the operator or the organizer of the plan, the withdrawal from the service of those who, due to serious causes of a moral or disciplinary nature, duly proven, threaten the normality or success of the service. Air Wave Tours. LLC will not be responsible if, due to legal or other issues in which the user is involved, the user must withdraw from the service, nor for the additional expenses incurred due to these events. In relation to services not provided at the time of user withdrawal, the operator's refund policies will apply, if any. Air Wave Tours. LLC is not jointly liable for or responsible for such refunds.

The client will be solely responsible for the custody of their luggage and travel documents. Air Wave Tours. LLC will be able to guide the passenger in the events of loss of their luggage or travel documents. However, under no circumstances will it be responsible for the loss, damage, deterioration or loss of said elements. Air Wave Tours. LLC will inform the passenger of the restrictions established by the airlines in terms of prohibitions, maximum weight and number of pieces per passenger, people or loads allowed in attractions or tourist sites, limitations or impediments to access by maximum capacity. However, it will be the sole responsibility of the passenger to comply with said policies.

PENALTIES

Cancellations received 60 days before the start of the trip will have a refund of 100% of the value paid and a charge of 8% of the total value of the trip will be charged for administrative and financial expenses.

Cancellations received between 40 and 59 days before the start of the trip will have a 50% refund on the advance made and a charge of 8% on the total value of the trip will be charged for administrative and financial expenses.
